

SAMPLE WEEKLY LESSON PLAN

Week of April 3
	M	T	W	R	F
Sign in/Drop Off	Differentiated Name sign-in -Last Names -First Names -Matching Letters
Science/Investigations	Concept: Building Homes		Concept: Part of Homes
	Hook lesson: using doll house without dolls to determine base knowledge	Hook lesson: using doll house without dolls to determine base knowledge	Have doll house taken apart like puzzle, see if children can name parts	Have doll house taken apart like puzzle, see if children can name parts	Have doll house taken apart like puzzle, see if children can name parts
Sensory	Pipes in the water table	Pipes in the water table	Pipes in the water table	Pumps and plungers in water table	Pumps and plungers in water table
Meeting Topic or Book	Talk: about new book interests and trip to book mobile	Talk: New Conscious Discipline Jobs for Month	Read: The House that Jack Build by J.P. Miller	Talk: what do we know about houses? Intro new vocab	Read: If I Build a House by Chris Van Dusen
Library and Writing Center	New books about houses and architects from book mobile: List new books after added to area. Add clipboards, blue paper, and white crayons to writing for beginning to explore blueprints Add rulers, measuring tape, and blueprints to writing table, begin to refer to as "drafting table"
Child Focus IEP Goals or Documentation for Specific Children			Objective/Rubric: Steven, Sam, Arya	Objective/Rubric: Maria, Adam, Bob, Suzy	Objective/Rubric: any remaining children
Learning Objectives:	Children will discover and demonstrate initial understanding and vocabulary of parts of a house by playing with the house without dolls and furniture, explore the house taken apart, and try to piece the house back together, using language like roof, rooms, framing, windows, doors, stairs, foundation.
Other Happenings:	Book Mobile @ 11:00AM	Steven to Speech @ 9:30	Maria to OT @ 10:45

Weekly Comments and Reflections: